Enrollment Terms
Once registered, there are no refunds or credit issued for Monik's Creative Movement dance classes, and registration fees are non-transferable. Taking one class in a given session obligates a dance student to finish the class and pay for that session, unless there are extenuating circumstances (e.g., illness, death in the family, etc.), of which the instructor needs to be notified immediately. Refund or credit, if any, will be at the discretion of Monik C. Jones a.k.a Monik's Creative Movement. Credit will also be issued if Monik's Creative Movement must cancel any classes due to scheduling conflicts at dance class locations.
